We do not sell

Gold Dollars

—FOR—

92 Cts.

And yet some people would believe such a thing possible. What we will do, however, is to give you full value for every dollar spent with us.

One Dollar spent at our store goes a long ways.

Read some of the prices and don't let them prejudice your mind, but come and see with your own two eyes and you will say, it pays to go down town to trade.

Examine our all wool flannel dress goods at 30 cents per yard.

All shades of double width Tricots, at 57 cts. We have marked down all of our 25c worsteds to 15 cents.

Double width flannel dress goods at 48 cts. Just received 1000 yards of Hamburg Edgings—exquisite patterns, only 12 cts for any you may select. Finer than we ever sold.

Have you seen those lovely hats, straw and felt—New York style?

Examine our French kid button boot at $1.75. It beats the town.

Examine our Ladies' wool Vests at 50c and 98c—best quality.

Examine those Ladies' linen handkerchiefs 3 for 25c; a bargain.

Fine, regular made, Ladies' hose warranted fast black at 18c a pair. Best Balbriggan hose at 25c.

We have Ball's celebrated corset; the best in the world.

A new lot of decorated china and glassware on exhibition this week.

We would advise you to CALL EARLY.

"First come, first served."

THE LIVE,
LOW PRICE HOUSE OF EDENTON, N. C.

Entered at the Post Office at Edenton as Second-Class Matter.

Scales and Plants.

Work on the streets. Talking Dolls at O. Newman's, cheap, for Xmas.

Mr. J. J. Burgess, of Norfolk, Va., is again in our midst. Glad to shake the hand of Dr. Woodley on Saturday last.

Every day our town is filled with strangers. What's out?

A man who cheats the poor printer never meets with any luck.

Several new enterprises will soon be started in Edenton, we hear.

Fine assortment of Christmas Toys just arrived at O. Newman's.

Dr. Hathaway, of Avoca, attended the funeral of Dr. Dillard, Sr., yesterday.

Mr. Maurice Westcott and wife, of E. City, is visiting the family of L. F. Ziegler, Esq.

The Monitor comes to us this week enlarged and much improved. Success to its owner.

Several new families, we hear, will soon settle in Edenton. Let 'em come. All are welcome.

The new brick office buildings are rapidly being erected in front of the Bay View House.

Christmas toys will soon be on market. 'Tis then when the hearts of our little ones are made glad.

Two run-a-ways on Main street was the excitement of yesterday. Only two mashes made—the buggies.

Great change in the Ten-Pin Alley. Advantage to the players. Call at Hayes and get information.

Christmas is but a short time off now, and the little folks are looking forward and counting the weeks of the time to come.

Labor is very much in demand. Some of our timbermen report as being unable to secure hands enough to carry on their business.

Oysters a plenty, this season. Two saloons in town where they can be had in all styles, at any price, in any quantity and at all hours.

Our Manager returns thanks to his friend Mr. Brothers for a pleasant ride, behind his last trotting cart, last week, which he much enjoyed.

Sunday was almost a perfect day, bright, balmy and beautiful. All the churches were open for worship and the people turned out in good numbers to each.

Fun! fun! fun!!! We are requested to state that every young man in town is invited to meet at the Ten-pin Alley Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Christmas is nearing.

Our market is now very good. Every thing a hungry man needs can be had. We are glad to see it. Edenton has long been in need of a good market. Let it so continue.

FOR SALE, and at prices low—Five Mules, three good Brood Mares and three Colts, 3 and 4 years old, all broke and good drivers. Apply to J. E. Bonner & Co.

Oysters cheaper at Hayes' than any house in town.—Fried in cracker dust and butter for only 25c—best we ever ate.—Fresh milk and winter greens can be had daily at Hayes'.

A young man says he intended to go to hear Mr. Smith, on Sunday evening last, but as the text was to be "Thou fool," he feared personalities, and would not go.—Washington Gazette.

The following names are the Roll of Honor of the Edenton High School for the month ending Nov. 25th: Misses Maggie Fletcher, Gertrude Vennings, Bessie Warren, Venie Boush and Jennie Levy.

Mr. E. G. Schirman, Merchant Tailor of E. City, is here on a visit. Young men, read his advertisement in this paper and give him an order before he leaves. He is a good workman and fills orders cheap and promptly.

Again we had the pleasure of shaking the hand of our friend Prof. J. H. Ziegler, a well known and highly respected citizen of E. City, on yesterday. He is here on a visit to his son Louis. He is looking well. The Prof and his bright little daughter called to see us this morning.

Carts, buggies, wagons and vehicles of every description were in town on Saturday last. Trade with our merchants were very good. All did a good business. Edenton now ranks among the leading towns of the State for bargains and it pays every one to come hereto either buy or sell.

The funeral of Dr. R. Dillard, Sr., was largely attended yesterday. The vast number of people present, both white and colored, attested the universality of the favor in which he has been ever held. Rev. R. B. Drane read the funeral service. Drs. W. R. Capehart and R. H. Windborn and Messrs. J. R. B. Hathaway, J. G. Williams, W. Y. Warren, W. B. Shepard, Wm. P. Jones, and W. D. Pruden were the chosen pall-bearers. The floral tribute was both profuse and superb.

Another man stops his paper because he is asked to settle for it. Such is the luck of we poor printers. Can't ask for our money unless we either get our feelings trampled upon or that we loose a subscriber. But our rule is to send no paper without it is paid for. Let this be understood by all.

Again we call special attention to the advertisement of W. V. Elliott, agent for the "Castle Engine," the simplest engine made. Mr. Elliott is a machinist by trade and is prepared to do any work in this line. We hope Mr. Elliott will open shop in our midst a regular machine shop—something that Edenton needs.

Rev. Earnest Stephens, of Petersburg, Va., will succeed Rev. R. A. Armistead as pastor of the M. E. church of our town. Mr. Stephens is a young man of fine character and excellent attainments and will prove, judging from what we hear, "the right man in the right place." He will preach next Sunday-morning and night.

The immense success experienced in the Oyster trade this season enables me to furnish my patrons and friends at rates cheap and within the reach of all. Twenty-five cents per quart. Fresh from Norfolk daily. Buying in large quantities I can afford to sell cheap. Full pint oysters stewed 25c. Full fry (in cracker dust and butter) 25c. Give me a call. Satisfaction guaranteed. R. B. Hayes, King street, Edenton, N. C.
